Why This Is a Must-Attend Event:

Dave Dionisi is known for presentations that have participants transforming their lives and joining the forces for peace. His presentations on U.S. imperialism have led many conservatives to renounce their support for President Bush and unjust policies like the invasion of Iraq. Come gain a deeper understanding of what's really going on outside our borders and how this is impacting life inside the U.S. A brighter future is possible. Attending will help you see nonviolent solutions to our most pressing problems.

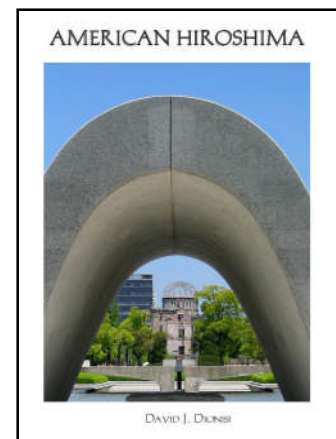

About the Presenter:

Dave Dionisi is the author of American Hiroshima, a book about how to prevent the next 9/11 attack and bring about more peaceful world. He is a former Fortune 500 executive, Army Intelligence Officer, and has extensive experience as an international volunteer.
