Feedback on your Week of Peace experience:

The bottom line on the rules for our Week of Peace donations is we will do our best to help organizations receive the funds when the Passport is returned along with the donation instruction form. We reserve the right to handle situations where incomplete information exists or when a situation arises that violates our guiding principles. If you follow the process described on this form, then in late November the organization will receive a donation from Freedom From War.

If you have additional questions or wish an update on the status of a submitted donation, please read our FAQs on the www.freedomfromwar.org site or contact us at freedomfromwar@sbcglobal.net.
